

Timely customs clearance and arrangement of in-bond transportation or settlement of duties are one of the fundamental elements of our forwarding services.

This is of particular value to our Polish clients who are forced to sell their products to American receivers on DDP terms. For such clients, our American customs agency can calculate and advance the proper duty and any taxes on behalf of the shipper.